

St. Brigid
CUS 417/129.107

at the Rockmount a house rented for the summer by Archie for them - a house surrounded by 26000
tomato plants

At St. Brigid's would have on next book revision. Archie M. then for two weeks -

Began about 9³⁰ worked till 12:30 at 12. Occasionally would stop to light a cigarette and work on a page or two with ~~the~~ "Cissie" la Bae the dog bled while I found that he spoiled by feeding anything. Understood notes. Would talk a walk alone on beach.
After work a text book after lunch, 12 of the letters of the Times

Cf. Story of the remarkable effects of that sentence. The next book is sections. Two working on the overwork option. Archie said he will let Jim and Stuart cut two words further the next Ed. this from him means an additional new page.

Was a triscript to herma in fact within during the war.

Picked up a little girl ^{on the beach} who had been ^{around} ? used to come to house - father a plumber in St. Heliers other for summer. She could sing a little French song and would come to the house

Had been asked by Sir W. Paley to give something on World War, long form on the whole subject. Had all the things then. Promised body B. would read ^{before} it till he finished the revision of his section.

Read the History of the Roman Literature 2 vols. also in bed at night - The Beloved by George.

Wrote to ^{King} to Glasgow ^{Burton} re. to give sessions

12. VIII. 19.
St. Brigid's, Jersey
Many thanks for your greeting, I think the birthday gift will be A.I. They have been delayed - but the drawing presented to her is beautiful.
Yours, etc.

Once when reading Mrs. Ursula of Lobbe Patch aloud to Peter he had to stop alone the room - this was long ago.

Dr. Fisher