

Clab tells me the Nicolaus Solernitanus (wrongly, Facultus) is the oldest and my rare books are the 4 claimed ones was the copy for the Dunn Sale & bought by George Dunn from the Fontaine Sale. 1902 'Centaurus' three pieces which I lost a chance. Bibliophile see these marks but not the modern correctly. It is the earliest printed tract on children diseases. The Libellus de Egritudinibus et Remediis Infantium
