Mr. Suction Grant

Sir,

As this is the season the Farmers generally sell their Wheat. If you cannot get it at  $3\frac{1}{4}$  a  $3\frac{1}{9}$  p<sup>r</sup> Bushel, we think for your interest, you had better to take all the Wheat from those that owes you, at the current price the ensuing Spring. It is now selling here from  $3\frac{1}{9}$  a  $4\frac{1}{4}$

Please send us a Sketch from your Books, your account Current with Mr. Grant & Co.
We remain very truly

Dear Sir,

We had the pleasure of writing you the 21st Instant, I now we beg leave to hand you inclosed a Account Sales for a part of your Woolens consigned us last Summer, also your Account Current, Balance on your favor £81.11.8.

You will please to observe one half your Woolens is payable 1st June & the other half 1st July.

We wished we could have been able to have sold your Woolens at a shorter credit, but Sales are so dull that no retailers would buy under 90th days credit & we trust what we have done will merit your approbation.

Mr. Millbayer called on us a few days ago with an acct against you, which we will be glad to know from you if we will pay him.

We remain with much esteem

Dear Sir,

Yours

Grant & Sutherland
