Amherst, Mass., Feb. 1. 1850. Dear Mother, I have just received your kind letter of the 28th and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the city and will be here some time longer. I have not yet received any news from the friends at home.
I am, dear Mother, ever your affectionate son,
John A. A. A.
