

The Dainty Monsters
Ondaatje's first collection of poems, now in its fourth printing. $3.00

The Collected Works of Billy the Kid was originally designed at Coach House for the House of Anansi, now $3.25 from Anansi.

The Man With Seven Toes
is an early work with the skilful incorporation of history into an extended dream-like form which made The Collected Works of Billy the Kid so popular. Here the legend starts from an Australian lady and an escaped convict. Third printing, $3.00 is Ondaatje's fourth and latest book. Served with a stained-glass cover, poetry from palette to palate. Second printing: $3.00 paperback, $6.95 hardcover.

Rat Jelly

The Coach House Press
401 (rear) Huron Street
Toronto, Canada, M5S 2G5