

East African Development: Some Problems of Multi-Cultural States

FOUR LECTURES AT 8.15 p.m.

- October 17 — Tribal diversity in the Colonial period and the ethnic rivalries of today.
- October 19 — Ethnic rivalry for the control of the Central Government — an illustration from Uganda.
- October 24 — Problems of local government in a multi-cultural state.
- October 26 — Integrative forces and the role of the new African Universities.

THE FOURTH SERIES -

Keith Callard Public Lectures

by DR. AUDREY I. RICHARDS

FORMERLY DIRECTOR, CENTRE OF AFRICAN STUDIES, UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Council Room, 8th Floor, Stephen Leacock Building

The Centre for Developing-Area Studies

McGILL UNIVERSITY

APPROVED FOR INDOOR POSTING ONLY
MCGILL UNIVERSITY